

SCREEN PRINTING Reflection

In the Screenprinting Unit, we created our artworks through the following stages:
Research, Designing, Stencil Preparation and finally, Screenprinting.

Which stage do you think you performed the best in and why?

Which stage was the most difficult and why?

If your design or stencil was not quite what you planned, how might you have changed it if you could go back in time?

What did you learn from the stencilling process? Write at least 3 ideas...

If you had to mark your final print, what would you give it and why?
(1 poor, 2 average, 3 good, 4 very good, 5 excellent)

Rate your time management skills (1 poor, 5 excellent) for each stage of the process:
